Hardcover edition of the famous masterpiece by this titan of a millenium of Islamic scholarship, as abridged by himself, in English language

WHY THE ABBREVIATED VERSION?

The Shaykh and Imām, the Proof of Islam, ABŪ ḤĀMID MUḤAMMAD IBN MUḤAMMAD AL-GHAZĀLĪ, may God have mercy upon and be pleased with him, stated:

'Thank God for all His bounties; for even enabling us to thank Him; and prayers and peace be upon the Master of Messengers, Muḥammad, His Prophet, Messenger and Servant, upon his family and Companions, and upon his successors after him, his Ministers in his time. – I missed, in some of my travels, a facility for extracting from the 'Iḥyā' 'ulūm ad-dīn' its essences, due to the difficulty of carrying it around with me, on account of its bulk. Hence I tackled this matter, seeking success and guidance from God and praising His Prophet. It consists of forty chapters. And God guides to the truth.'

FROM THE PUBLISHER'S PREFACE

With this book, Imām Ghazālī consolidated the legacy left by the Holy Prophet into a form that makes it indispensable reading for every Muslim, as well as for those inspired by the fundamental questions of our existence; the text also incites and encourages the yearning for those means whereby we might attain happiness in this life and the hereafter.

There are justifiable grounds for assuming that the Emperor Frederick II of Hohenstaufen was secretly a Muslim. If this was indeed the case, we would have the very odd situation of a Muslim ruling over the lands of Western Christendom while simultaneously acting as the patron of the Christian faith. This fact holds a dramatic tension which deserves a closer look for it to become entirely comprehensible. Therein lies hidden not only the secret of how Allah's sun could shine upon the West and yet remain undetected, but holds at the same time the resolution to the much-vaunted contradictions in the man's personality, which if understood in their proper context and meaning, not only drop all their mystery but begin to make eminent sense.

FIRST STEPS IN ENGLISH MARKET

We are a German publishing outfit, and for around twenty years we have been producing books in an advanced way by following classic rules of this art in typesetting, page-layout, paper, binding etc. So if there is enough space you will find the writing on the spines horizontally adjusted so that there is no need to tilt your head by 90 degrees when trying to read the text on the spine of the book.

We mainly publish books for Muslims and those who are interested in Islam, and people say that our books are the most beautiful in this field: from the perspective of texts, the editing and their shape, as well as from the physical attributes of the books, i. e. the way you may handle it, its off-flat character and the solidity of its shape and its bonding, either glued or thread-stitched. You can be sure that your book will last a lifetime.

Now, making some first timid steps in the English book market, we are surprised by customers' expressions of an overwhelming praise of our publications, for example IMĀM GHAZĀLĪ'S Mukbtaṣar ihyā' 'ulūm ad-dīn, and also the paperbacks you can find mentioned in this flyer.

We look forward to gradually publishing some more books for the English market and its friendly customers worldwide in-shā' Llāh. And we promise to do our best to provide excellent quality.

With best wishes,
wa s-salām,
